

Six historical castles within two days

1st day

Arrival in the district capital Feldbach. Meeting point at Kornberg Castle at 9:00. Here, the lord of the castle and chairman of the castle road, Mr. Consul Mag. Andreas Bardaeu, welcomes you and guides you through the castle. Thus he gives an exciting and unforgettable insight into the last centuries. There are historical backgrounds of the family as well as amusing anecdotes from the host.

At Vulcano Ursprung, you will then experience the world of ham as a realm of the senses. The harmonious interplay of modern technology and Styrian tradition creates delicious specialties for connoisseurs. Following the guided tour with the ham expert, you will try the tasty product range and a glass of Styrian wine.

After visiting the new exhibition "The Small World of the Great Castles" in the Meierhof at Kornberg Castle, continue to Riegersburg. "The West's strongest fortress" is perched on a volcanic vent and owes its present appearance largely to "Lady Galler". With the modern inclined elevator, you reach the stronghold and go to the exhibition "Legendary women, legendary Riegersburg". Through the gates, you will go down the castle path to the center of Riegersburg where the bus is waiting.

Via the Klöcher wine route you reach Kapfenstein castle. The castle proudly rises on an extinct 2-million-year-old volcanic cone. First mentioned in the 11th century, the building houses an excellent restaurant. Let this day end with all its impressions and experiences with an excellent dinner.

After returning to the district capital Feldbach check-in at Hotel Pfeilers. At the final commented wine tasting in Sissi's wine bar, not far from the hotel, you will have time to review the day.

2nd day

After breakfast walk to Tabor Feldbach. At 9:00 am guided tour through the universal museum with more than 30 small rooms. It is set up in the former fortification around the parish church of Feldbach. The objects show the craftsmanship and peasant life in the southeast of Styria, the city history of Feldbach, as well as nature and archaeology of the region.

Drive over the highway to the southwest of Styria.

2-course-lunch at Deutschlandsberg castle, afterwards presentation of the castle with its peculiarities during a tour, which shows the varied offer of the castle.

The afternoon is dedicated to Ottersbach castle. The castle stands on an area of 20,000 m² and today includes the 24 rooms, a castle chapel, the Baroque and Festival Hall, the North Terrace, a winter garden and the wonderful castle park with the pavilion and the rose- and farmhouse garden.

Completion of the castles round trip with coffee and cake with the castle owners.
